Suspicious Blaze in Brooklyn Under Investigation.

Fire Marshal Brophy of Brooklyn is investigating a suspicious fire which occurred early today in the basement of a three-story brownstone residence of Philip Lieberwitz, No. 631 Wiloughby Avenue, Williamsburg.

The Lieberwitz family are still at their country home on Long Island. A neighbor discovered the fire and turned in the alarm. Firemen found a burning window broken, and believe a lighted brand was thrown in through the opening. The blaze was extinguished at a loss of about $200.

ITCHING BURNING ECZEMA ON LIMBS

In Form of Rash. Went to Scalp. Loss of Sleep. Hair Fell Out and Became Very Thin.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"I had eczema on my limbs in the form of a rash. After much burning and annoyance it all seemed to leave the limbs and go to my scalp. My scalp was sore and red and there was itching and burning and loss of sleep. My hair fell out gradually nearly causing me to be bald, and it became very thin.

"Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using one box of the Cuticura Ointment and two boxes of Cuticura Soap I was healed." Signed Mrs. Annie E. Palms, McConeville, N. Y., Feb. 9, 1916.

SHE STOLE $75,000, BUT IS FREE ON PLEA OF THE FIRM ROBBED

Bookkeeper Who Confessed to Embezzlement Released on Suspended Sentence.

At the request of the company from which she confessed having stolen more than $75,000 in the last three years, Miss Henriette Michaelis, bookkeeper for the American Rattan and Reed Manufacturing Company of Greenpoint, was released on suspended sentence to-day by Judge Roy in the County Court, Brooklyn.

Counsel for the company urged the action by stating that Miss Michaelis had made substantial restitution of the amount she had embezzled. The action of the Court was an obvious surprise to District Attorney Lewis, who had declined to make any agreement with the defendant. Miss Michaelis pleaded guilty when arraigned on an indictment charging forgery in the false entry of an item of $500 in the company's books.

"I cannot understand the attitude of the firm," Mr. Lewis said later. "You may depend upon it that I shall scrutinize this matter most carefully. Miss Michaelis may possibly be brought to trial on two remaining indictments against her. These two cannot be dismissed except on motion of the District Attorney."

HOBOKEN WILL DANCE AT CELEBRATION TO-NIGHT

It's All Part of Gala Week Which Will Last Until Next Monday.

Hoboken's gala week is under way. The entire town has been divided into blocks for to-night's neighborhood dances, the White Way will be radiant and from now until next Monday the celebration will continue.

It started last night when Mayor Patrick R. Griffin switched on 300 arc lights that made Washington and First Streets look like Long Acre Square. Along the new White Way the military, police, firemen, civic bodies and everybody who anybody in Hoboken marched.

Companies K and M of the Fourth New Jersey, just back from Texas, were in line and Michael Patalina, eighty-three years old, who has just come back from the Italian front, led an organization that got cheers, showing that Hoboken is under a strictly neutral spell.

Two hundred thousand folk watched the parade that represented every feature of the city's progress. The official programme calls for dances to-night and to-morrow night will end the festivities.

4,320 Pairs Women's Gloves—Much Under Price at 85c, 95c, $1.15

In the Down-Stairs Store—A New Offering—Mostly Imported

To help every woman who reads this announcement realize its importance a brief statement of certain conditions in the foreign glove market will stand repetition here.

First of all, glove cutters are very hard to find abroad. The few exempt from military duty charge much higher wages than before the war. They do not work as fast because they are older and less expert. Chemists, button and clasp workers, embroiderers and even packers—all have their special work for the government—their glove work is only incidental. Even the skins are scarce and higher in price because foreign governments are requisitioning great quantities of kid and lambskin.

These conditions have had an immediate effect here—in New York. Last week, for example, we received several offers from importers, wanting to buy these gloves from us and willing to pay our low retail prices.

2,520 Pairs Gloves at 95c Pair
 Two-clasp lambskin, white and black, self back, white with black, embroidered back and black with white embroidered back, some with Paris-point back; some with one row embroidered back. Also one-clasp pique sewn gloves in black and tan with embroidered backs.

Please note that the lambskin in many of the gloves is of an exceptionally soft and pliable kind.

600 Pairs of Gloves at $1.15
 White lambskin, black embroidered back; pique sewn, one pearl button at wrist.

Young Women's Suits Are Simple
 "Let your coat be as luxurious as you will, but your tailored suit must be simple," says fashion to young girls of 14 to 20 years.

Little Gray Salons for Young Women offer a really charming collection of simple suits and that is no small thing to say, for a suit that is simple must be remarkably well cut and tailored.

Rarely do our suits require an alteration. Always is the material all wool and of excellent quality. Linings are peau de cygne and interlinings of flannel.

At $32.50, $35, $40
